About AIASA

AIASA is an organization represented by professionals of present-day and former students of Agriculture, Veterinary Science, Dairy, Horticulture, Fisheries, Forestry, Home Science, Sericulture, ABM and other allied sectors. Registered under Societies Registration Act 1860 and formally launched on 10th May 2011. Established with a mission of strengthening the voice of passionate agro professionals, veterinarian, at State, National, and International level. AIASA envisages a common platform for agriculturists /technocrats and bureaucrats to work towards the development of agriculture. Endorses "Right person at Right place" mode, to promote improved application of science and technology. AIASA empowers and motivates youth to view agriculture as an equivalent career opportunity and thereby promoting knowledge transfer & Agripreneurship in the country with the help of self- driven and directed agrarian policy.

About TNAU

Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU) is a century old premier institute providing higher education in Agriculture. TNAU had its genesis from establishment of an Agricultural School at Saidapet, Chennai, Tamil Nadu, India as early as 1868 which was later relocated at Coimbatore during 1906. Till 1946, the Agricultural College and Research Institute, Coimbatore was the only institute for agricultural education for the whole of South India. In 1958, it was recognized as a Postgraduate Centre for offering Masters and Doctoral degrees. It is a non-profit public higher education institution. TNAU has the pride of being the first State Agricultural University (SAU) to be accredited by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR). Recognizing the merits, the ICAR awarded the three national awards viz., second position in Green and Clean Campus Award, PG Scholarship Award for Horticulture and Forestry and PG Scholarship Award in Engineering and Technology.

About Coimbatore

Coimbatore also known as Kovai is the second largest city and urban agglomeration in the Indian state of Tamil Nadu, after Chennai. The city is located on the banks of the Noyyal River surrounded by the Western Ghats. The rich black soil of the region has contributed to Coimbatore's flourishing agricultural industry and, it is in fact, the successful growth of cotton has served as a foundation for the establishment of its famous textile industry. Due to profound role as an industrial hub and multi-faceted business endeavours, Coimbatore is referred popularly as "Manchester of South India" and "Detroit of India". Coimbatore is the fourth largest metropolis in India and known for its educational institutions. The city also houses research institutes like Central Institute for Cotton Research, Sugarcane Breeding Institute and Institute for Forest Genetics and Tree Breeding.
